Re: MC-182583 (Sub 4C)
MC-182583 (Sub 4P)

Dear John:

Enclosed is a copy of the page of the ICC Register reflecting the above application.

You will observe that "A and B explosives" was omitted from the publication.

I have checked with the D.O.T. in Jackson (Ben Wood) and he said that "A and B explosives" are included in "hazardous" materials.

I have checked with Branch 1, ICC (Lois Thompson), to determine why "classes A and B" was excluded. She said because to include "A and B explosives would have made the description "redundant."

However, I have no problem with the exclusion because, in my opinion, "classes A and B explosives" are included in hazardous materials authority.

I will check this with Ms. Eleni Brown to see if a problem exists. I filed this application based on the support of the Department of the Army.

Yours very truly,
